

Fall Bible Study

In this week's Messenger letter I outlined two different times for our weekly Bible study. I need to now have those of you who might wish to participate to choose one of the studies listed below as your preference. Each session will last approximately 45 minutes. Let me know by August 31st either by my email: ron.garner@gmail.com or call me at 917 940 6447. The choices are:

- 1) Continue our move through Hebrew Scripture by studying 1st Samuel;
- 2) A brief study of the the primordial history of Genesis, Chapters 1-11. We did not study these chapters when we began our study of Hebrew Scripture. I would bring the insights of Fr. Richard Rohr to this study;
- 3) An overview of the book of Psalms. Using insights of Old Testament scholar and UCC minister, Walter Brueggemann;
- 4) A study of the role and marginalization of women in both testaments;
- 5) A study based next year's lectionary gospel, the Gospel of Mark. Using insights from Ched Meyers.
